

„Mapping expressive differences around the world - a worldwide study focused on emotions and emotions regulation“

Despite the importance of the concept of cultural display rules in explaining cultural differences in emotional expression and despite the fact that it has been more than 30 years since this concept was coined, there is yet to be a study that surveys display rules across a wide range of cultures. This project aimed to report such a study.

Hlavní řešitel: Prof. David Matsumoto, San Francisco State University, USA.

Doba trvání: 2001 – 2008

Postavení: Národní koordinátor